CAPTRUST Community Foundation Donates $510,000 to 56 Charities

The CAPTRUST Community Foundation (CCF), a CAPTRUST employee-run 501(c)(3) foundation whose mission is to enrich the lives of children in local communities, today announced that the organization has donated $510,000 to 56 charities around the country as the firm celebrates its second annual Giving Day.

RALEIGH, N.C. – August 13, 2021 – The CAPTRUST Community Foundation \(CCF\), a CAPTRUST employee-run 501(c)(3) foundation whose mission is to enrich the lives of children in local communities, today announced that the organization has donated $510,000 to 56 charities around the country as the firm celebrates its second annual Giving Day.

This summer, each CAPTRUST office was given the opportunity to allocate $10,000 to charities in its local community. Each organization must benefit children, to align with the CCF's mission. The event was a follow-up to last year's Giving Thanks campaign, where the firm gave $450,000 to 45 nonprofits.

"We are thrilled to be able to deploy the CAPTRUST Community Foundation's resources directly into the communities where we have offices around the country," said Philip D'Unger, president of the CCF and senior team leader at CAPTRUST. "As our firm grows, so does our ability to make a real impact in our communities. We look forward to continuing this annual effort for years to come, thanks to the generosity of our CAPTRUST colleagues."
