Launched in 2015, the list acknowledges women who are making significant contributions to the retirement industry. This year, nearly 500 nominees were submitted for consideration.

Of the 50 total spots, CAPTRUST advisors scored nine. In fact, three of our honorees—Beryl Ball, Patricia Bills, and Jean Duffy—have been recognized on this list every year since its inception.

“This is a group of women who truly elevate our firm. CAPTRUST is honored to have such an excellent bunch of advisors included in the 2019 list of NAPA Top Women Advisors,” said CAPTRUST CEO and Co-founder Fielding Miller.

Honorees are separated into three list categories—all-stars, captains, and rising stars.
