Cybersecurity Best Practices (Webinar Recording)

Watch this CAPTRUST quarterly webinar recording.

According to cybersecurity firm BlackCloak, one in four families currently have malware on their computers, phones, and tablets, and 70 percent of households have exposed account passwords. In this webinar recording, CAPTRUST Chief Technology Officer Jon Meyer and Dr. Chris Pierson, founder and CEO of BlackCloak, present an informative session on cybersecurity best practices. The session covers:

- Ways to protect your finances, reputation, and personal pictures and data
- How to protect your passwords and secure your devices
- Ways to prevent digital break-ins in your home

And Chief Investment Officer Mike Vogelzang and Head of Wealth Management Eddie Welch kick off the recording with the latest CAPTRUST market update.
