

CAPTRUST Announces Merger of Advisory Firm Davidson & Garrard

CAPTRUST, one of the nation's leading independent wealth management and institutional investment advisory firms, today announced that Lynchburg, VA-based Registered Investment Advisor (RIA), Davidson & Garrard (D&G), joined CAPTRUST's growing team of advisors. The organization now operates in 35 offices nationwide and oversees more than $244 billion of client assets.

Founded in 1987, D&G is an independent, fee-only RIA that focuses on customized investment advisory services for individuals, families, endowments, nonprofits, institutions, and retirement plans. The firm brings nearly 30 years of experience and has 13 employees who operate in two local offices, including Lynchburg and Lexington. Principals Bill Paxton, Dave Hansen, Jack Flippin, and Steve Crank will remain with the firm under the newly adopted CAPTRUST brand.

"Since the beginning, D&G has been committed to taking great care of our individual and institutional clients and, in so doing, have built enduring relationships," said Davidson & Garrard Principal Bill Paxton. "Joining the CAPTRUST team is an exciting step for us. CAPTRUST shares our values and investment philosophy, has wonderful people, and will allow us to stay at the forefront of investment resources and technology. CAPTRUST already has a strong presence in Virginia through its retirement plan services business, and we are delighted to join the family."

CAPTRUST offers a 20-year bedrock of stability to advisory teams looking for a long-term partner committed to industry leadership and leveraging the unique benefits of the RIA model. Ranked the number one RIA in the country for the past two years by Financial Advisor Magazine, CAPTRUST's partnership approach has proven over time to add substantial value to the client experience, provide firms with leading technology and investment resources, create continuity for owners, and help firms prudently grow their practices. This announcement marks the seventh merger the firm has completed in 2017 and the 27th deal completed over the last 11 years.

“The firms that join our team often have varying areas of expertise and goals for future growth—but what they all have in common is a deeply rooted culture anchored in doing well by their clients. Davidson & Garrard is no exception,” said CAPTRUST CEO, J. Fielding Miller. “We are extremely proud and honored to welcome them as colleagues.”
