

CAPTRUST Community Foundation Presents $125,000 Grant

RALEIGH, N.C. • Dec. 17, 2018 • The CAPTRUST Community Foundation (CCF), a CAPTRUST employee-run 501(c)(3) foundation whose mission is to enrich the lives of children in local communities, is honored to provide a grant in the amount of $125,000 to Kidznotes, a music for social change program for young people that includes instrument instruction, choir, orchestra, and band, in North Carolina's Triangle region.

Kidznotes's vision is to be a catalyst for change that uses music to build a thriving network of children, families, and partners in which passion for music unleashes the human potential to transform lives and communities. Kidznotes engages students, pre-K through 12th grade, in an intense out-of-school music program.

“Partnering with Kidznotes is a privilege for the CAPTRUST Community Foundation. We are truly grateful for the opportunity to support children and communities through music,” said CCF President, Nick DeCenso.

During a lunch and learn event at CAPTRUST headquarters, Kidznotes's Executive Director, Nick Malinowski, graciously accepted the $125,000 grant on behalf of the Kidznotes organization. “The entire Kidznotes family is deeply honored by CAPTRUST Community Foundation's transformational investment in our work,” said Malinowski. “This investment will allow Kidznotes to provide over 16,500 hours of life-changing music instruction in schools throughout the Triangle.”

The foundation expects to provide financial support to more than 80 children's charities before the end of 2018, with today's grant of $125,000 being the largest of the year.
