

CAPTRUST's CMO Honored by TBJ as Outstanding C-Suite Executive

In July, the Triangle Business Journal recognized CAPTRUST Chief Marketing Officer John Curry among its 2019 class of C-Suite Awards winners.

This accolade, which honors outstanding C-level executives for their contributions to the Research Triangle community, will be presented to 15 winners from a variety of industries, including technology, health care, finance, and engineering.

On August 22, winners will be recognized at an awards luncheon at Prestonwood Country Club in Cary, North Carolina and honorees will also be profiled in a special section of the Triangle Business Journal that will be published in its subscriber edition.

"This is a real honor. I am lucky to work alongside so many fantastic and talented people at CAPTRUST. The marketing department is filled with some of the best and brightest in the industry," says Curry.

Curry joined CAPTRUST in 2012. As chief marketing officer, Curry is responsible for strategic marketing, business development support, and brand marketing for the firm. He has worked in the industry since 1986, and his experience spans all areas of marketing and project management, including content creation, digital marketing, product development and design, market research, branding, and sales campaign management.
