

IIDC Endorses SEC Diversity Recommendations

The Institutional Investing Diversity Cooperative (IIDC) recently endorsed the July 7, 2021 recommendations on diversity made by the Subcommittee on Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) of the Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) Asset Management Advisory Committee.

The IIDC agrees that asset owners would benefit from improved transparency on diversity statistics of registered advisors and due diligence processes.

CAPTRUST is a founding member of the IIDC and supports the diversity efforts announced by the committee. "In addition to our own firm-wide diversity initiatives, CAPTRUST aligns with the IIDC to encourage the SEC to implement these recommendations," said Ellen Shaer, CAPTRUST's IIDC representative. "We support the way the industry continues to move in a more inclusive direction."
