

Health + Wealth: A Holistic Approach to Retirement (Webinar Recording)

This webinar explores how proactive health planning—like executive health physicals—can support long-term financial goals and improve quality of life. Learn how CAPTRUST advisors are helping clients take a more complete approach to retirement and beyond.

Our speakers Raul Seballos, M.D. of the Cleveland Clinic and CAPTRUST's Eddie Welch discussed how:

- Health is a key factor in long-term financial planning.
 - Your physical well-being directly influences retirement strategies, healthcare costs, and overall financial security.
- Proactive care can lead to better outcomes.
 - Cleveland Clinic's executive health physicals offer same-day, comprehensive evaluations that help clients stay ahead of potential health risks.
- Holistic planning is the future.
 - CAPTRUST advisors are integrating wellness into financial conversations to help clients make smarter, more informed decisions.

CAPTRUST recently announced the CAPTRUST Wellness Advantage: Powered by Cleveland Clinic, which combines access to Cleveland Clinic's medical services with CAPTRUST's signature client service, offering a concierge-supported approach to both financial and physical well-being.
