What's on the Minds of Plan Sponsors?

2020 has brought its fair share of challenges for plan sponsors. Given the volatile markets, rampant unemployment, and new legislation, plan sponsors are facing an unexpected and unprecedented environment that will affect them and their participants for years to come.

---

How long will the challenges brought on by COVID-19 last? And more importantly, what should plan sponsors be considering for the second half of the year—and beyond—to be well positioned?

In this webinar recording, CAPTRUST Director and Defined Contribution Practice Leader Jennifer Doss, Senior Director of Retirement Services Phyllis Klein, and Financial Advisor Jim Edwards discuss:

- How plan sponsors can provide ways to improve participant financial wellness
- The effects of recent legislation, including the SECURE Act, on retirement income
- How managed accounts and target date funds have fared
