Cathy Seeber: My commitment to my clients is to ensure stability, stability, and security. It's a very personal, trusted relationship, and for someone to understand that they've entrusted that with you, they need to also feel a sense of security that that's going to continue, no matter what. My client relationships span over 20 years now. They know that I'm not going to be around forever, so I needed to align myself with a company where I knew they would succeed and have a very elevated client experience. Regardless of when I end my career as a financial advisor, I am more than confident that CAPTRUST has the systems in place to ensure that their interests are always first.
